FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL OTTAWA COMPANY RECEIVES NATIONAL RECOGNITION WITH READERS' CHOICE AWARDS

OTTAWA, ON, June 17th, 2021 - Clariti Group Inc. is a Canadian firm headquartered in Ottawa that provides outplacement and employee transition support, leadership and team development, workplace mental health training, DEI services, workplace investigations and restoration, and knowledge capture and transfer services. The firm has received national recognition once again this year, taking four Canadian HR Reporter Readers' Choice Awards.

Supporting both employers and individuals across the country, the boutique Ottawa-based firm achieved acclaim for its services in the following areas:

The survey for the Readers Choice Awards 2021 took place between March 8 and April 3, 2021. Canadian HR Reporter compiled for nomination an impressive list of vendors and suppliers to the HR community from across the country. Readers were invited to cast their ballots in an online survey, and responses were completely confidential. Survey participants were invited to select up to a certain number of organizations, depending on the category. The top three nominees who received the most overall votes were awarded the Readers' Choice designation. You can read more and view the winners list here.

Clariti Group is owned by founding partners Kevin Barwin and Tara Azulay.
